

Innocent!

[Yvonne]

Tell you 'bout when I was young
Parents skipped out, I had no one

Brother was sick, we needed cash
And a rich ol' man weren't so bad

But a princess needs to find her prince
Part time lover who could really kiss

A pretty DJ can't pay the bills
So I lived two lives and took my fill

One night at the disco
I died on drugs in San Francisco

I know it sounds bad but...
I'm innocent!

[spoken]

[Joseph]

That's not enough to end up here! And neither is standing up for my principles!

[Yvonne]

Of course not! Nobody can blame you for that!

[sung]

He's innocent!

[Joseph]

A journalist for a liberal rag
Got off the plane in North Iraq

Imbedded but I found a cause.
Joined the rebels and took up arms.

Jean Paul Sartre and Hemingway.
Got no heroes like that today.

Hid in the hills and buried the dead.
Fought for the kurds and blood I shed.

Only tried to be a martyr
Now they're calling me a traitor

[Joseph/Yvonne]

I'm innocent!

[Yvonne. Spoken]

You were a hero!

[Ilene. Spoken]

Right. A hero. Sure. And I bet that's the whole story--from both of you.

[Joseph. Spoken]

I died for a cause!

[Yvonne]

And I saved my brother!

[Joseph/Yvonne]

We're innocent!

[Ilene. Sung]

Why the silly make-believe?

We're damned in hell, no time to grieve.

We all fucked up along the way.
And now we're here, it's time to pay.

Killers and criminals, one two three
The devil never errs or miss the beat

Marina bitch and Traitor Joe
We've had our fun it's time to go

No more time to be clever
Stuck in a room forever
